It is with humble gratitude and building anticipation that I greet you – my brothers and sisters of Hilton Methodist Church.

As an answer to prayer, God has chosen to place me in your fold: a task I eagerly embrace and excitedly await. Reading and hearing of your passion for mission, your dedication to social justice issues, and your faithful service to those God has chosen to surround you with, resonates with my calling, experience, and passion.

Having served God for 20 years in full-time ministry, ordained as presbyter by Agape Family Church in Durban in 2009, and ordained as deacon to the Ministry of Word and Service of the Methodist Church of Southern Africa in 2015, I come to you as servant – first and foremost – manifesting the life that Christ has called me to. Praying that as we serve God and one another together, as we journey ever deeper spiritually, and as we work alongside God in restoring shalom in this world and its people, we may lift Him to be recognised and made known.

Through the years, I have met God as volunteer and leader in Emmaus and Kairos, started a small prison ministry called Parakletos which I grew and incorporated into Prison Fellowship South Africa. I have seen God working through courses and seminars, counselling and sermons, and witnessed lives being transformed and salvation being embraced.

For the past 9 years, I have been serving as minister to Sinoville Methodist Church where God has grown and used me in establishing a leading mission model, benefitting hundreds of thousands of lost, lonely, broken, and needy people. I have known God to be generous, faithful, and just, and this experience and journey has shaped me to work in His vineyard, His purpose to fulfil.

I have been shepherding the Methodist Order of Deacons as Warden for the past four years, serving on the MCSA Connexional Executive, and the General Connexional Committee of our Education for Ministry and Mission Unit (EMMU).

My wife Ans, my grandson Brannon-Lee and myself look forward to meeting you all and making our home in your presence and care. We take seriously the task

God has placed before us and commit ourselves to give you only our best. Until we meet, may God's blessings and presence be evident in your lives.

Yours in Christ
