“And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night. The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night did not depart from before the people”

EXODUS 13:21-22

Mother of Sorrows

*My Son, could I have climbed this hill for You,
How willingly had I endured each stone:
Yet, I too struggled up steep Calvary;
You have not climbed alone!*

*Could I have borne the monstrous cross for You,
I would have carried it unto my death.
Though I could not, still I have felt its weight,
My Son, with every breath!*

*Oh, could I pluck these nails from Your loved flesh,
And driving them through mine, make them a part
Of my own body's pain, I would! But Son,
I wear them in my heart!*

– Virginia Moan Evansen, St. Anthony Messenger, March 1958

The church will be sanitised and regulated as per COVID protocols. Please do not linger after church or get into lengthy discussions. We love you and wish you to remain safe.
